Oregon, Clackamas, Highland.

On Memorial Day in 1996, Mike Dunton and family, visited the old Martin (Måns Tufvesson) Freeman homestead, with Mildred Emily Freeman Axmaker as our guide. The family called the site, "Mountain View" or "Mountain View Farm" because you could see Mt. Hood. We got permission from the current landowner (Mr. Almond) to go through the old house and take pictures. Got pretty good exterior pictures but the interior shots were too dark as the flash was not working. The house was scheduled to be destroyed.
